REPORT OF TOWN LIBRARY.

A gentleman from Washington D. C., passing through our town was charmed with our library, "So fitting in natural surroundings"! On entering, his face beamed as he exclaimed, "What a gem and what an inspiration to its readers"! On looking at the catalogue further, he said, "You have good foundation here and the blocks by which you build a noble life," such types as he saw looking down from the wall. A book that is not worth reading twice is not really worth the place on the shelf. But in every library there are good books and some not so good. Yet if the reader is earnest and has desire for the good, it does not affect him, for his one thought and ambition is to get knowledge and he can easily call them out. As for example in "From Alien to Citizenship," a book of last year, the author was a wanderer but his love of books gleaned from the little library over the seas was his monitor, when lured by the lights of the city or gay companions and his life is a noble type of manhood. Our list contains this year many books of the better class and the back leaf has many red stamps showing they are appreciated. The Harbor and Turmoil, Life of Nevins, and Life of Maeterlinck, Wild Bird Guests, Pennell's Greek Temples, are particularly interesting and will give much pleasure.

From librarian's report we find the following:

Number of books loaned, 9844.

Largest number loaned, 1380 in January.

Smallest number loaned, 600 in December.

Number of books repaired, 2055.

For the first time, the school at Water street and the Plain primary will be in session thirty-six weeks during the year ending March, 1916. This addition of six weeks has caused an extra expense of nearly two hundred dollars, most of which has been met by interest on the Tuttle fund. In order to maintain these schools the same length of time next year, it will be necessary to raise more money than was raised last year.

We hereby notify the selectmen that the following appropriations will be required for the coming year: For text-books and supplies, $85.00. Flag, $4.00.
